In a little over a decade, GrapeCircus have grown from being the Italian wine experts in Ireland, to having a sizeable representation of wines from all over Europe. We seek out wines with character and personality, that are sometimes edgy, but always retain a true sense of terroir and tradition, made by passionate people with respect for nature and the environment.

This year, alongside some of our all time favourites, we are presenting lots of the newest members to the troupe. Introducing just a few; our love affair with Nebbiolo continues with winemaking heroes, Barbacán in Valtellina; not one, but two Croatian winemakers Piquentum and Vinarija Križ; age-worthy volcanic whites from Ciro Picariello in Campania; and, proving supertuscans CAN be exciting, Tenuta di Valgiano.

A little bit of method fuels the madness at GrapeCircus... join us!

Our selection can be found at Table 1

Finally together again! We are very excited about putting our energies together towards Spit 2022. While remaining focused on Spain, where we have the pleasure to collaborate with some of the country's most talented winemakers, we also focus in bringing to Ireland our best choices of wines from Portugal, France, Italy, Germany, Austria, Czech Republic.

As there is no better person than the winemakers themselves to speak about his wine, this year we have invited to Dublin Susane and Catherina from Claus Preisinger, Chiara and Michele from Oltretorrente and Olivier Rivier.

In addition, we will present a selection of wines from our ever evolving portfolio. Our focus keeps growing!

Our selection can be found at Table 2

Nomad Wine Importers Ltd was created in 2007 by two leading sommeliers, Thierry Grillet and Charles Derain. Together we bring over half a century of expertise in fine wine. Nomad is now recognised as one of the leading sources in Ireland for French wines, particularly from Burgundy.

We travel to France each year to taste the new vintages and to meet our producers, giving us an unparalleled knowledge of the vineyard, the growers and the wines themselves. We work with producers who share our passion for expressive wines with honesty, precision and definition.

WineMason sells original and distinctive wines to restaurants and independent retailers, specialising in wines from Germany, Portugal, Austria, Spain, France, Italy, South Africa and California.

This year at SPIT, our line-up focuses on single varieties and single vineyards. The selection has a narrative which we look forward to tasting with you. We will be showing some of the very best and distinctive wines on our list, a short selection of just 40 wines.

WineMason's Austria expertise will be led by Georg Prieler of Burgenland, with exceptional Pinot Blanc and Blaufrankisch; onto whites, there are two more Austrian wines from Zillinger, both Gruner Veltliner; two Albarino from Forjas del Salnes in Rias Baixas; a lineup of classic and "not so classic" Sauvignon Blanc is followed by Chardonnay (though not from Burgundy); Riesling is represented by Marvin Marx from Emrich Schonleber in Nahe.

Reds: start with Bordeaux, Closerie Saint Roc and three climats are presented by Emeline Callet. Effectively situated in Puisseguin St Emilion and labelled as Vin de France, Closerie Saint Roc is co-owned by the Amoreau family of Le Puy. Then; three French reds from the Loire five Pinot Noir mostly German!; Piedmont, a South African Syrah and two single vineyard wines from Rioja Alavesa.

Ending (or maybe you want to start with) four Sparkling wines, two on the natural side from Aphros in Vinho Verde, Evoé Piquette and Pet Nat and two on the "traditional" method side La Cuvee from Gramona and Noir Coteaux a Champagne based mainly on Pinot Noir from Goutourbe Bouillot.

We hope you enjoy the tasting.
