In a little over a decade, GrapeCircus have grown from being the Italian wine experts in Ireland, to having a sizeable representation of wines from all over Europe. We seek out wines with character and personality, that are sometimes edgy, but always retain a true sense of terroir and tradition, made by passionate people with respect for nature and the environment.

This year, alongside some of our all time favourites, we are presenting lots of the newest members to the troupe. Introducing just a few; our love affair with Nebbiolo continues with winemaking heroes, Barbacán in Valtellina; not one, but two Croatian winemakers Piquentum and Vinarija Križ; age-worthy volcanic whites from Ciro Picariello in Campania; and, proving supertuscans CAN be exciting, Tenuta di Valgiano.

A little bit of method fuels the madness at GrapeCircus... join us!

WineMason is owned by Ben Mason and Barbara Boyle MW (Master of Wine) one of 390 people in the world to hold the title. WineMason sells original and distinctive wines to restaurants and independent retailers, specialising in wines from Germany, Portugal, Austria, Spain, France, Italy, South Africa and California. This year at SPIT we are celebrating diversity in wines from different places, climates, soils, varieties and methods including biodynamic, organic, amphora, orange, sparkling, fortified..... as much as we can pack into an edited selection of 35 wines.

Our selection can be found at Table 2, wines 36 - 70

Nomad Wine Importers Ltd was created in 2007 by two leading sommeliers, Thierry Grillet and Charles Derain. Together we bring over half a century of expertise in fine wine. Nomad is now recognised as one of the leading sources in Ireland for French wines, particularly from Burgundy.

We travel to France each year to taste the new vintages and to meet our producers, giving us an unparalleled knowledge of the vineyard, the growers and the wines themselves. We work with producers who share our passion for expressive wines with honesty, precision and definition.

While remaining focused on Spain, where we have the pleasure to collaborate with some of the country's most talented winemakers, we also bring to Ireland wines from Portugal, France, Italy, Germany, Austria, Czech Republic, most recently Argentina and Chile.

As there is no better person than the winemaker himself to speak about his wine, this year we have invited to Dublin Jose Luis Mateo from Quinta da Muradella in Monterrei, Tiago Sampaio from Folias de Baco in Douro Valley and Francesc Escala, presenting the edge cutting sparkling wines of Raventos I Blanc from Penedes.

In addition, we will present a selection of wines from our ever evolving portfolio. You will taste: three unique Palominos coming from different "corners" of Spain; Galician whites always offering diversity of grapes and styles and the fantastic evolution of the Xarel.lo Nun del Taus 2016.

We want to focus on the quality of our favourite Rioja producer – Artuke, showcasing the outstanding wines from the 2017 vintage (one of the most challenging years in decades in Rioja). We will keep a close eye on Vitor Claro working in Lisbon and Alentejo, on Luis Seabra in the Douro Valley and on German Blanco and his "Casa Aurora" project in Bierzo Alto.

Thirsty as we are for purity we are excited to show you the wines of Louis Claude Desvignes from Morgon, new (2018) vintage of La Bruja de las Rozas and the stunning 2018 Del Moro from talented Javi Revert in Valencia. Speaking of the purity... we challenge you to taste the most elegant and mineral Bobal on earth: Estrecha 2016!!!

Our selection can be found at Table 4, wines 106-140

NOMAD WINES

Domaine Carmin Larreyda (Biodynamic)

Camín Larredya is a family estate in the Jurançon Appellation, south of Pau. The Grussautes have a small but remarkable vineyard. The 9 Hectares planted by Jean-Marc's father 40 years ago, are terraced and lie on steep and curved slopes that form an amphitheater. Local grapes (Petit Manseng - Gros Manseng - Petit Courbu - Camaralet) are farmed organically since 2007 and biodynamically nowadays. Wines are named after the vineyard parcels from which they come.

Jean Marc Grussaute produces dry and sweet Jurançon AOC, which are part of the elite on this terroir.

Domaine des Ardoisieres (Biodynamic)

The estate was created in 2005 by Brice Ormont (current owner) and the iconic Michel Grisard. This winery produces outstanding wines. The vineyard was planted on steep slopes (up to 60%) only with local grape varieties like Jacquère, Mondeuse, Altesse, and Persan. This 13 hectares organic vineyard is run with passion and respect of the living world. The aim is to let nature express itself.

Brice Ormont's rigorous work in the vineyard is the key asset of the wine quality. Every action that is run in the vineyard aims to convey the grape and therefore the wine, the identity of each plot.

Domaine du Pech (Biodynamic)

Located in Ste Colombe en Bruilhois , in the south west of France, They are producing only red wine from AOP Buzet. This Domain is owned by Magali Tissot and Ludovic Bonnelle.

The wines produced at the estate are among the reference wines in terms of Biodynamic farming. It denotes a deep respect of the nature, the grapes, the vine and its ecosystem and the reactions of the vine in its nature environment.

87. AOP "Jarnicoton" 2016 €27.00

88. AOP "le Pech Abusé" 2014 €34.00

Domaine Christophe & Fils (low intervention)

Sebastien Christophe is a man of mystery in Chablis, coming from nearly nowhere he has quietly been climbing the ladder of Chablis Stars. Alcoholic and malolactic fermentation occur in stainless steel tanks, with a use of older barrels for the ageing of 1er Cru and Grand Cru. He looks for elegance, length, purity and minerality in his wines.
